

Naturalising Crocus bulbs

Crocus can be planted in lawns to provide early spring colour as they flower early and are finished before the first cut of grass. Cream Beauty and Ruby Giant are ideal varieties to naturalise in grass. Simply cut and roll back the turf, drop the bulbs in randomly in drifts for your desired effect and roll back the turf. The term used to describe this style of planting is 'Naturalising'.